

Handing out the cards

You have one stack of folded cards numbered 001 to 150. Each card has Round 1 on one side and Round 2 on the other. The black Hand out # label on the card tells you the order. #001 is on top.

- 1 Give every person who walks in one card: the next one off the top. Kids too, if they're joining in.
- 2 Always go in number order. Don't skip numbers, don't let people choose or swap, and don't shuffle. The numbers are what keep the teams even.
- 3 Hand them out one person at a time, even to friends and families who arrive together. The order splits people up on purpose so everyone meets someone new.
- 4 If someone gives a card back or leaves, put it aside. Don't put it back on the stack.
- 5 Keep handing out to latecomers right up until the game starts.
- 6 When the game is about to start, tell the MC the number on the last card you gave out.

Say to each person: "Hang on to this card, you'll need both sides for the game later. Please don't swap!"

Number on the last card I gave out: _____

Ran out of cards? If more than 150 people arrive, ask the extra people to be judges. They help the MC check that teams are lined up correctly.

Someone lost a card? They can stand with any team in that round and cheer them on.

Run sheet

Before the night

- Print ALL IN Cards.pdf: A4, colour, single-sided, actual size / 100% (not "fit to page"). 38 pages.
- Cut the whole printed stack in quarters along the solid lines (a guillotine at the print shop makes this one minute of work). You get four piles: A, B, C, D, printed next to the card number.
- Fold every piece in half on the dashed line, printing on the outside. Round 1 is on the front, Round 2 on the back.
- Stack pile A on top of B on top of C on top of D. That puts cards 001 to 150 in order, 001 on top. Pile D ends with two blank spares.
- Give page 1 of this guide and the stack to your welcome volunteer.
- Test the presentation on the church laptop and projector, with sound.

How the teams work

Every 50 cards form 5 complete teams of 10 in each round. If the last group of 50 isn't full, those teams are smaller. They still play and still find everyone in their team. Round 2 mixes people up so each team is made of new faces.

LAST CARD NUMBER	TEAMS	TEAM SIZES
50	5	5 teams of 10
75	10	5 teams of 10 + 5 teams of 5
100	10	10 teams of 10
125	15	10 teams of 10 + 5 teams of 5
150	15	15 teams of 10

The presentation works this out for you: type the last card number into Setup.

Running each round

- Explain: find your team by icon, work out who each clue is, then line up in Bible order.
- Teams face the screen, earliest story on the left.
- Start the timer. When a team shouts "ALL IN!", click their tile. They then freeze.
- Reveal the answer. Each person raises their card as their character appears.
- Winner: check the fastest team first. One person out of place means wrong, so check the next fastest.
- After each round, the winning team comes up: Hardest Clue Vote after Round 1, One Word All In after Round 2. The MC script has the wording.

Timing

CLOCK	SEGMENT
0:00	Welcome and rules (1½ min)
1:30	Round 1 race (3 min max)
4:30	Round 1 answer and winner (1½ min)
6:00	Hardest Clue Vote, Round 1 winners (1 min)
7:00	Round 2 race (3 min max)
10:00	Round 2 answer and winner (1½ min)
11:30	One Word All In, Round 2 winners (1½ min)
13:00	Closing, thank you, Instagram (1½ min)
14:30	Done, 30 seconds spare

The presentation shows a 15-minute game clock in the top bar. Running late? Use Reveal all instead of one at a time.

Correct order

Position 1 is the far left of the line as the team faces the screen. The cards only show the clue. Teams have to work out each name themselves.

Round 1

1	Noah	God warned me a flood was coming, so I spent years building a huge boat on dry land while people laughed.	Genesis 6–7
2	Abraham	God told me to leave my home and family, and I went without knowing where. Years later I was even ready to give up my son Isaac.	Genesis 12; 22
3	Moses	I was raised as a prince in Pharaoh's palace, but I gave it up and led God's people out of Egypt through the Red Sea.	Exodus 14; Hebrews 11:24–26
4	Rahab	I lived in the wall of Jericho. I hid two Israelite spies on my roof and hung a scarlet cord from my window.	Joshua 2
5	Ruth	I was a widow from Moab. I refused to leave my mother-in-law Naomi and told her, "Your God will be my God."	Ruth 1:16
6	David	As a shepherd boy, I faced the giant Goliath with just a sling and a stone.	1 Samuel 17
7	Elijah	On Mount Carmel I stood alone against 450 prophets of Baal and prayed for fire to fall from heaven.	1 Kings 18
8	Daniel	I kept praying to God three times a day at my open window, even though it got me thrown into a den of lions.	Daniel 6
9	Esther	As queen of Persia, I went to the king without being called, to save my people: "If I perish, I perish."	Esther 4:16
10	Peter	I left my fishing nets to follow Jesus. One stormy night I stepped out of the boat and walked on water toward Him.	Matthew 4:18–20; 14:29

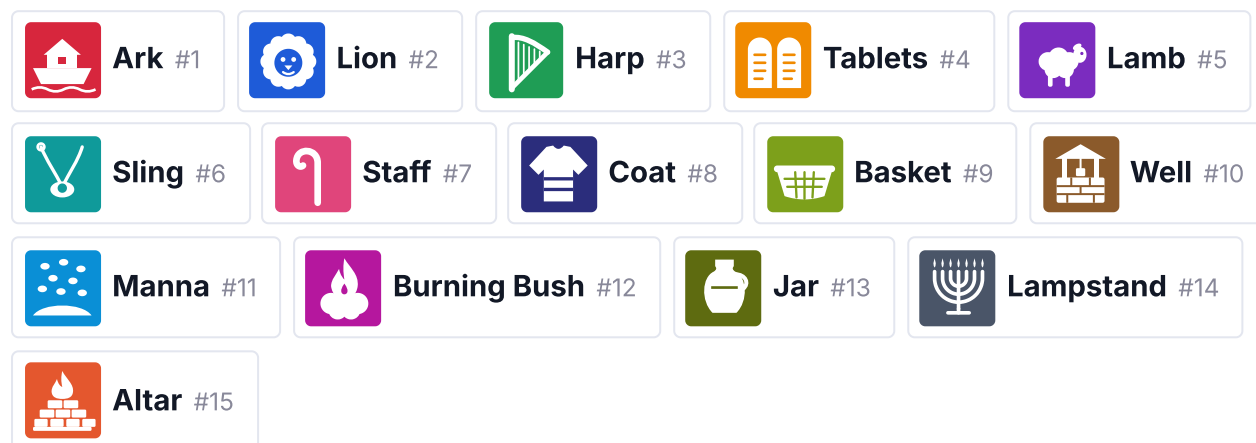

Round 2

1	Abel	I gave God the best of the firstborn lambs from my flock. God accepted my offering, but my brother Cain was jealous.	Genesis 4:4
2	Joseph	My brothers sold me as a slave. I refused the advances of Potiphar's wife and stayed faithful to God, even in prison.	Genesis 37; 39
3	Joshua	I led Israel into the Promised Land after Moses died, and told the people: "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."	Joshua 24:15
4	Hannah	I prayed so hard for a son at the tabernacle that the priest Eli thought I was drunk. When God answered, I gave my son Samuel back to serve Him for life.	1 Samuel 1
5	Elisha	When the prophet Elijah threw his cloak over me, I burned my plough and cooked my oxen so there was no going back. Later I asked for a double portion of his spirit.	1 Kings 19:19–21; 2 Kings 2:9
6	Isaiah	In a vision I saw the Lord on His throne surrounded by seraphim. When God asked, "Whom shall I send?" I said, "Here am I. Send me!"	Isaiah 6:1–8
7	Nehemiah	I was the Persian king's cupbearer. I left the palace to rebuild the broken walls of Jerusalem, and we finished in 52 days.	Nehemiah 2; 6:15
8	Mary, mother of Jesus	An angel told me I would give birth to the Son of God. I answered, "I am the Lord's servant."	Luke 1:26–38
9	The poor widow (two coins)	Jesus watched me drop two tiny coins into the temple offering box. It was everything I had to live on.	Mark 12:41–44
10	Paul	I used to hunt down Christians until Jesus stopped me on the road to Damascus. Then I spent my life spreading the gospel to the Gentiles.	Acts 9; Philippians 3:7–8

All 30 teams

#1–5 come from the first 50 cards, #6–10 from the next 50, #11–15 from the last 50. The presentation only shows the teams that exist on the night.

Round 1 • Bible objects

Round 2 • Bible places
